About the Magazine

You Are Here (YAH) is a print lifestyle magazine that shines a spotlight on the people, places, and experiences that make our community unique. Each issue features compelling stories, interviews, and a thoughtfully curated selection of products we love from local businesses.

Published four times a year (spring, summer, fall, and winter) YAH reaches 4,000 readers per issue, primarily in Uxbridge, with additional distribution in Port Perry.

Proudly produced by Take Root Creative, your local experts in creative services and digital marketing, You Are Here is designed with intention and a genuine love for where we live.

Advertising with YAH

Advertising in You Are Here connects your business with an engaged audience in your area through a beautifully designed, high-quality print publication created by and for locals. Readers keep, share, and revisit each issue, making it a lasting way to get noticed.

How it Works

Your ad cost includes placement in one issue of You Are Here and in-house design by our creative team, with one round of revisions. You provide the logo, images, copy, and contact information you'd like included, and we'll create a polished ad proof for your review. Additional revisions are available for an added fee.

To keep a cohesive, elevated look throughout the magazine, all ads must meet design standards approved by our editorial team.
